<Programme Title>

- OUTLINE -

Children will be introduced to songs and music that reflect their lives and culture in Singapore – the places we live in, the people we meet and the food we eat. There will be songs in four languages (English, Chinese, Malay, and Tamil) and musical activities (singing, movement and instrument play) that are in-line with the MOE Kindergarten Curriculum Framework. This programme aims to develop cultural sensitivity and awareness through songs and dances. A creative music and movement module that is developmentally appropriate for preschoolers to understand diversity, experience our culture and explore our heritage.

(OPTIONAL) Teachers Professional Development workshop. This workshop serves to equip teachers with strategies and skills to conduct music and movement sessions confidently in their classroom. Elements of Music and Movement will be reinforced with practical hands-on activities.

- LEARNING OBJECTIVES -

- Children will be able to:
1. Identify elements of music (Rhythm, Beat, Tempo, Dynamics, Form, Pitch).
 2. Sing confidently accompanied by actions/body percussion/percussion instruments.
 3. Find creative ways to work on body percussion and instruments to the song/music.
 4. Explore movements to the various cultural dances (Waltz, Chinese dance, Malay dance and Indian dance)
 5. Explore body movements to express ideas and feelings.

Charlotte's Web

- SYNOPSIS -

Get entangled in the enchanting story of a pig named Wilbur and his friendship with a barn spider named Charlotte. To avoid Wilbur being sent to the butcher, Charlotte proves to be a true friend by coming to his rescue. Come watch how Charlotte uses her web-spinning skills to weave messages that praise Wilbur, making him a celebrated pig treasured by the farmer and his family. Charlotte's Web is a poignant play that spins a positive message about friendship. Experience this timeless story with the entire family! The Children's Literature Association named Charlotte's Web "the best American children's book of the past two hundred years". Joseph Robinette, working with the advice of E.B. White, has created a play that captures this work in a thrilling theatrical presentation.
